African Gender Institute University of Cape Town

Professor Chandra Mohanty will be in conversation with a panel of South African feminist practitioners and academics as part of the African Gender Institute's 2014 Talking the Walk Programme.

Chandra Mohanty is professor of Women's and Gender Studies, Sociology, and the Cultural Foundations of Education & Dean's Professor of the Humanities at Syracuse University. She claimed the spotlight in 1984 with the publication of her essay "Under Western Eyes: Feminist Scholarship and Colonial Discourses". Her scholarship and teaching focus on, inter alia, the politics of difference and solidarity, decolonizing knowledge and theorizing agency, identity and resistance in the context of feminist trans-border solidarity.
